The above article was published online with error.

The following sentence (in methods section);

- MS patients followed in “X” University Faculty of Medicine Department of Neurology were evaluated.

should be changed as:

- MS patients followed in Ege University Faculty of Medicine Department of Neurology were evaluated.

On the other hand, the following sentence (in “methods” section and also “declarations” section);

- The permission for the translation for the Turkish version of the Life Balance Inventory was acquired from the developer of the original questionnaire.

should be changed as:

- The permission for the translation for the Turkish version of the Sleep-Related Behaviors Questionnaire was acquired from the developer of the original questionnaire.

The Original article has been corrected.
